Dear Jeremy:

I wanted to thank you and congratulate you for a brilliant defense strategy and resolution on my case.

As you know when I walked into your office, I was a broken man, with no hope, and very little to look forward to. Not only did you give personal advice that helped me tremendously, you also guided me through every step of my defense strategy options and made sure I stayed focused on my family during this most difficult time in my life.

The creativity and resourcefulness that you showed during the development of my case was encouraging to see. You seemed to know what moves to make every step of the way. Most important to me was the fact that during this process, little by little; you brought me hope and made sure that I could continue to carry on with my job.

I will never forget what you did for us. This case was not just about a brilliant defense it was also about keeping a positive attitude during this most stressful time. You somehow managed to keep it all together. My family and I thank you. So much was on the line for me.

Thanks again!

Sincerely,
